The Court made the following :

ORDER:

The grievance of the petitioner school is that during the final examinations for the academic year 1998-99, the respondents did not accept the nominal rolls of the students forwarded through the petitioner school and did not issue hall tickets. The petitioner, therefore, sought a direction to respondents to issue hall tickets to the students of 7th and 10th classes for the academic year 1998-99. As examinations were held long back, no relief can be granted in the writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as infructuous.
